STUDENT CONDUCT ON SCHOOL BUSES

751.2

The Board has authority to enforce regulations governing student conduct previous to loading the bus, while on the bus and after leaving the bus.

Bus driver will file reports regarding student misconduct. Parents/guardians will be notified if there is misconduct by their child. If such misconduct is of a serious nature or continued, the student's privilege to ride the bus may be suspended or revoked by school authorities. Notification of parents/guardians and due process shall be in accordance with state law and established procedures.

Meetings shall be scheduled between the bus driver/bus contractor and building principals to discuss student conduct problems as they occur.
