Rodney Figueroa named new Superintendent Pittsville School District

On Friday, February 26, 2016 the Pittsville Board of Education extended a contract offer to Rodney Figueroa as the new Superintendent for the Pittsville School District. Mr. Figueroa has accepted and will start his duties on July 1, 2016.

He was selected from ten applicants who applied for the position. On February 17, five of the applicants were interviewed by the board of education. Of these five applicants, the school board selected Mr. Figueroa and Mr. Dennis Kaczor for final interviews with staff, community and board of education. Final interviews were conducted on Wednesday, February 24.

Figueroa has been the high school principal of New Holstein School District since July 2012. He was previously a Math teacher at Washington Jr. High School in Manitowoc from 1990 to 2012. He also was head wrestling coach at Valders High School from 1999-2012.

Figueroa earned his undergraduate degree from University of Wisconsin Oshkosh, his Masters degree in Educational Administration from National Louis University. He is currently pursuing his Wisconsin superintendent license through Viterbo University.

Pittsville School Board President stated, "We are excited to have Mr. Figueroa join our district. He has a proven history of being an outstanding instructional and team leader who will build partnerships with the staff, community and students"

Figueroa will replace Dr. Paul Vine effective July 1, 2016, who has served as the interim district administrator since October 1, 2015
