1. Student and Staff Learning:
  - a. Data outcomes from STAR end-of-school-year
  - b. Data monitoring overview
2. Innovation and Recognition:
  - a. Appreciation given for diligence and attention to detail given by Cheryl Ashbeck Jordan Rayburn, and Emily Krystowiak to create a successful and celebratory last week for the Class of 2019. The awards evening and graduation were well orchestrated.
  - b. The custodial staff is already working fervently to make the transformations possible in both building and on the campus grounds. Dan Giles and his staff are incredibly hard working people who want to ensure the staff are satisfied.
  - c. Thanks to Chris Nepper for his fast turn around checking the senior chromebooks; 100% of fines were collected prior to graduation.

- d. Thanks to Kim Fox for her attention to detail and patience as she works through end of year transcripts, Skyward glitches, and rolling over the student population for next school year.
3. Looking Ahead:
- a. PHS 9th grade orientation will be held on Tuesday, August 27th, from 1-3 pm. This orientation will be led by upperclassmen mentors and include schedule walkthroughs, a review of the student handbook and icebreaker games.
